R. S. Stevens, Esq.
Dear Sir:—

Yours 6th at hand. I cannot see how a report can be made in the matter unless you revise it. With this idea will hold the papers until your arrival.

I believe the claim is a just one and will do what I can to have it paid without expecting anything from it whatever. Have left the Grand Pacific Hotel, am to be found at the above address.

Respectfully Yours,
W. C. Graham
