

THE DEPARTMENT OF HUMAN DEVELOPMENT
R I C C I U T I lecture

MONDAY, October 28, 2013 at 3:30 PM, G87 MVR

Morton Ann Gernsbacher

Vilas Research Professor and Sir Frederic Bartlett Professor

Department of Psychology
University of Wisconsin-Madison

“Diverse Brains”

ABOUT DR. GERNSBACHER

Morton Ann Gernsbacher is Vilas Research Professor and the Sir Frederic C. Bartlett Professor of Psychology in the Department of Psychology the University of Wisconsin-Madison. Dr. Gernsbacher is past President of the Association for Psychological Science. Among many awards, she has received a Research Career Development Award and a Senior Research Fellowship from the National Institutes of Health, a Fulbright Research Scholar Award, a James McKeen Cattell Foundation Fellowship, and a Professional Opportunities for Women Award from the National Science Foundation. Gernsbacher is an award winning teacher, and for over 30 years, her research has investigated the cognitive and neural mechanisms that underlie human communication.

About the Ricciuti Lecture Series

The annual Ricciuti Lecture is delivered in recognition of the late Professor Emeritus Henry Ricciuti, a member of the Human Development faculty from 1958- 2011 and an internationally renowned scholar recognized for his many contributions to the study of child development through research, instruction, and service.

Cornell University
College of Human Ecology
Human Development