VOL II NO

ONE DOLLAR PER YEAR May 31, 1917.

EDITORIAL.

We were very much pleased to see the enthusiasm with which the flags were received yesterday both on the Campus and in the dormitories. It is very encouraging, especially at this time when almost continual demands are being made upon our sympathies - and our pocket books - to find that our interest in war relief does not wane.

The Committee wishes to thank all of those who by their co-operation, practical and otherwise, made success in the undertaking possible.

PAGEANT.

Will the girls in Risley who ordered Pageant Pictures from Jane Carroll, call for same at Room 212 without fail on Thursday evening between 8 and 10:30.

Bring correct change please.

Watch for notice of another auction sale to sell remaining properties. The auction sale Tuesday caused much merriment but the bids were low and the bidders comparatively few. There is enough left to justify another sale. Come and see if you too will be fortunate enough to get a piece of good looking material for a skirt for 80¢, for programmes @ 25¢ or a coat hanger for 3¢. Bargains for all. Fill your pockets and come!

FIRST AID CLASSES.

Dr. Parker's Tuesday section of "First Aid" will, have their last meeting Thursday evening at 8 o'clock at her home, 326 E. State St.

CLASSES.

Juniors

We want songs for crew and baseball. Hand songs to one of the following:

Louise Bentley
Irene Gibson
Sophie Harvith
Clara Starrett

Sophs in Dom. Econ.

Don't forget the meeting in Dom. Econ. at 7:30 to-night.

Freshmen

The meeting to-night concerns all of you. Remember 7:15 in Sage Gymnasium.

FOR RENT!

Rooms for about 7 girls at 120 Oak Ave. Apply to Marion Irish, 49 Sage, or G. Krey, 85, Sage.

Will the girls who borrowed red Gym bloomers from the Frosh for the Pageant please remember that the Frosh have to take Gym and have the courtesy to return them.
