VOL. XVIII., No. 31

ITHACA, N. Y., MAY 4, 1916

PRICE 10 CENTS

THE BUDGET for next year was adopted by the Board of Trustees at a regular meeting held last Saturday. Final action was taken on the question of faculty representation in the Board, a question which had been under consideration for several years. That action is related under an appropriate head elsewhere in this paper. Several important faculty appointments were made, which likewise are recorded in other columns. Announcement was made of new gifts aggregating $35,000 for a dining hall.

THERE WERE THIRTY-ONE MEMBERS of the Board at the meeting, as follows: President Schurman, the Commissioner of Agriculture (Mr. Wilson), the President of the State Agricultural Society (Mr. Sessions), the Librarian of the Cornell Library (the Rev. Dr. Tyler), Mr. Charles Ezra Cornell, and Trustees Boldt, Hiscock, Mason, Edwards, Miller, Newman, VanCleaf, R. H. Treman, Westervelt, Moody, Thomas B. Wilson, Westinghouse, C. E. Treman, R. B. Williams, Matthews, Pound, J. Du Pratt White, Blood, Shepard, Sackett, Place, Tansey, Ickelheimer, Andrew D. White, Pratt, and Horace White.

COMMUNICATIONS were received by the Board from a number of associations of women graduates and individuals asking that the office of Dean of Women be created, in place of the present office of Adviser of Women, and that the incumbent have a seat in the University Faculty and a commensurate salary. The office of Adviser of Women will become vacant next month when Mrs. Gertrude S. Martin's term of office will expire. The whole question was made the first order of business for the June meeting of the Board.

FOR A NEW LABORATORY OF CHEMISTRY the Trustees chose the site where President Schurman's house now stands. They decided not to rebuild Morse Hall. They did, however, make an appropriation for cleaning up the ruin, putting a cheap roof over the building, and fitting the place for the temporary use of the department of chemistry. It had been estimated that more room could be made available there than anywhere else on the Campus for the same amount of money. Various places had been inspected, including the old armory, the temporary use of which by the department had been considered, and the plan to make use of Morse Hall was chosen as the most practicable. What is left of Morse can be made fit for use for three or four years, and it is hoped that within that period of time provision will be made for a new laboratory. The site chosen is central and affords room for expansion. A building is planned which, facing westward on East Avenue, will extend from Reservoir Avenue opposite Rockefeller Hall northward to the Forest Home Road. There is room for future extension eastward as far as the reservoir. The rough dimensions of the whole plot are five hundred feet north and south and seven hundred feet east and west. The East Avenue end, chosen for the laboratory site, is now occupied by the President's house and the houses of three or four members of the faculty.

GIFTS OF $10,000 AND $25,000, both contributions to a fund for the building of a dining hall, were announced to the Trustees by Mr. Boldt last Saturday. The name of neither donor was revealed. The Trustees asked the President to express, through Mr. Boldt, the thanks of the University to these benefactors for their generous gifts, and the President led in the expression of thanks to Mr. Boldt for his continued labors in behalf of the University. The dining hall fund, including a previous anonymous gift of $20,000, now amounts to $55,000. The hall is to be a part of the residential group now in construction. An architect's drawing of the proposed building was published in the NEWS of two weeks ago.

HERMON ATKINS MACNEIL, N.A., has been chosen to execute the statue of Ezra Cornell which is to be unveiled on the occasion of the University's semi-centennial celebration. The choice of the sculptor was made by a sub-committee on the semi-centennial and was approved by the Trustees last Saturday. Mr. MacNeil was an instructor in industrial art in Sibley College for three years (1886-9) in his young manhood. He used to model busts of Cornell worthies in the Campus snowbanks. After he left Cornell he taught at the Art Institute in Chicago, and then he won a prize which gave him four years of study in Europe. He was a student of Chapu and of Falguière in Paris. Among his works are the McKinlev Memorial in Columbus, Ohio; the heroic group "The coming of the white man" in Portland, Oregon; a group, "The sun vow," in Montclair, N. J.; a memorial to Herbert Baxter Adams at Johns Hopkins University, and the memorial bust of Robert Henry Thurston in Sibley College.

THE FISCAL YEAR of the University has, by vote of the Trustees, been changed so as to end on June 30 instead of July 31. Henceforth the University's year will coincide with that of both the Federal and the State government. The State's fiscal year has ended on September 30, but it was changed at the present legislative session to accord with the Federal government's calendar. Since the University must account for moneys received from both Federal and State treasuries a common day for the striking of balances will simplify its book-keeping. Another disadvantage of the old calendar grew out of the fact that the year ended in the midst of the summer session, when many accounts on the University's books were open.

RUTGERS COLLEGE will celebrate the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the college's foundation on the 13th, 14th, and 15th of next October. President Schurman and Professor Lane Cooper have been appointed delegates to represent Cornell University at the celebration. Professor Cooper is a graduate of Rutgers and is a son of the late Rev. Jacob Cooper, who was a member of the Rutgers faculty for many years. President Schurman has been appointed delegate to represent the University at the formal opening of the new buildings of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, at Boston on the 14th of next month.

THE APPOINTMENT of Earl A. Louder and Arthur L. Stern, assistants in chemistry, vice A. B. Ray and E. L. Mack, resigned, is announced.

Faculty Participation

Three Professors to Sit with the Trustees—College Faculty Committees

The Trustees, with the concurrence of the Faculty, have adopted a plan designed to give the Faculty a larger voice than it now has in the government of the University. The Trustees on April 29 adopted two resolutions, the one providing for the appointment of a committee of three from the faculty of each college of the University to meet with the standing committees of the Board of Trustees to consider questions relating to that college, and the other inviting the University Faculty to select not more than three delegates who are to sit with the Board and have all the powers of Trustees except that of voting.

The plan of inviting faculty delegates to sit with the Trustees appears to be adopted for an experimental term of three years only, and its continuance beyond that period may be presumed to depend upon what it accomplishes in practice. The Faculty has the choice of selecting delegates for the full term of three years or of fixing a shorter term with the object of having a succession in the office within that period.

At its meeting of April 29 the Board received the final report of a special committee which had been appointed in January, 1913, to consider and report upon the recommendations which President Schurman, in his annual report for the year 1911-12, made to the effect that the Faculty of the University should have a larger measure of participation in its government. A conference committee had been appointed by the Faculty at the suggestion of the Trustees and the two committees had had many joint meetings. The Trustees' committee submitted an exhaustive report to the Board last November and made two recommendations, to virtually the same effect as the two resolutions outlined in the paragraph above. At its meeting last January the Board approved the plan of councils representing the several faculties for conference with the Trustees, and referred the whole question back to its committee for further conference with the University Faculty committee. Between the January and April meetings such conferences were held, and at the April meeting the Trustees' committee was able to report a plan which had received the approval of the University Faculty.

In approving the recommendations made in that report the Board adopted two resolutions. The first resolution provides that the faculty of each college situate in Ithaca except the state colleges shall be invited from time to time to select two of its members who, with the dean of such faculty, shall constitute a committee for conference with the Trustees. The reason why the Medical College at New York and the two state colleges at Ithaca are excepted from this provision is that they each have already a council composed of trustee and faculty members. Each of the college faculty committees thus constituted is to meet as often as desired with any one of the three standing committees of the Board, namely, the committees on general administration, finance, and buildings and grounds, for the consideration of questions affecting the welfare of its college. The members of each faculty committee other than the dean are to be selected by ballot. The faculty of each college is to determine the power of its conference committee. That is to say, the committee may, if the faculty chooses, be ordered to serve for a definite term, or it may, if the faculty prefers, be constituted as any occasion for conference arises and only for that occasion.

The second resolution adopted by the Trustees provides that during a period of three years beginning June 1, 1916, the University Faculty may be represented at meetings of the Board by delegates. The Faculty is authorized and invited to select these delegates, who are not at any time to exceed three in number. The Faculty is to select the delegates by ballot and is to fix their terms of office, which are not to extend beyond the term of three years mentioned above. The delegates are to have the right to meet with the Board of Trustees and its committee on general administration and are to possess the powers of Trustees except that of voting.

Promotions in the Faculty

Professorships for Messrs. Hamilton, Leland, and Bogert

The following promotions were made by the Board of Trustees on April 29:

George Livingston Hamilton, A.M., Ph.D., assistant professor of the Romance languages and literatures, promoted to the grade of professor.

Ora Miner Leland, B.S. (C.E.), assistant professor of astronomy and geodesy, promoted to the grade of professor.

George Gleason Bogert, A.B., LL.B., assistant professor of law, promoted to the grade of professor.

William Silliman Foster, A.B., Ph.D., instructor in psychology, appointed assistant professor of education.

Prof. Woodruff Elected Dean

Other Appointments in the Faculty of the College of Law

The resignation of Dean Irvine from the faculty of the law school and the leave of absence for next year granted to Professor Hayes have given cause for several changes in that faculty. These appointments were made by the Trustees on April 29:

Professor Edwin Hamlin Woodruff is appointed Dean of the College of Law.

Oliver Leroy McCaskill, Ph.B. (Chicago, 1901), D.J. (Chicago, 1905), is appointed professor of procedure.

Henry White Edgerton, A.B. (Cornell, 1910), LL.B. (Harvard, 1914), is appointed acting assistant professor of law for the year 1916-17.

George Gleason Bogert, assistant professor of law, is promoted to the grade of professor.

The title of Professor Charles Tracey Stagg is changed from professor of procedure to professor of law, and Professor Stagg continues to be secretary of the College of Law.

Professor McCaskill resigns a professorship of law in the University of West Virginia to come to Cornell. He will take Dean Irvine's place in the work of instruction. Assistant Professor Edgerton will take the place of Professor Hayes during the latter's absence next year.

Dean Woodruff was born at Ithaca in 1862 and was a member of the class of 1882 at Cornell. He took his law degree at Cornell in 1888, in the first class graduated from this law school. Among his classmates were the late Dean Huffcut and George McCann, who is now a Justice of the New York State Supreme Court. He was admitted to the New York bar in the same year. In 1888-90 he was instructor in English at Cornell. Dean Woodruff began his law teaching at Stanford University in 1893, when he was appointed professor of law and when he inaugurated the instruction in law at that university. He held his Stanford professorship for three years and then accepted a call to Cornell; he has been professor of law in this University continuously since 1896. In the summer of 1904 and again in the summer of 1906 he gave a course in law at the University of Chicago.

Dean Woodruff has written text-books which are widely used. He is the author of Cases on Domestic Relations, 1897, second edition, 1905; Introduction to the Study of Law, 1898; Cases on Insurance, 1900; and Selected Cases on the Law of Quasi-Contracts, 1905. He was joint editor with E. W. Huffcut of American Cases on Contracts, 1894, second edition, 1900. He is a member of the American Bar Association.

During his professorship here Dean Woodruff has given service to many university interests outside the law school, including work advisory to undergraduate affairs. He has served on the Athletic Council and the Musical Clubs Council, and has been a member of the Committee on Student Affairs and other committees of the University Faculty.

Mrs. Martin's New Office

Adviser of Women Accepts Secretaryship of Collegiate Alumnae

Mrs. Gertrude S. Martin, who has held the office of Adviser of Women of Cornell University for the last seven years, has accepted the office of Secretary of the Association of Collegiate Alumnae. She assumed the office last week at a meeting of the council of the association which was held in Chicago. She had already announced that she would not be a candidate for reappointment to the office of Adviser of Women at the expiration of her present term in June.

The Association of Collegiate Alumnae has a membership of seven thousand, organized in seventy-five branches, and including graduates of half a hundred institutions. Its headquarters will be in Ithaca while Mrs. Martin holds the office of secretary and the Journal of the association will be published here, since the editorship is one of the secretary's duties. The Journal has been printed lately by the Chicago University Press. Meetings of the association are held biennially and the council meets in the intervening years.

Department of Education

Dr. R. M. Ogden Appointed Head—Resignation of Dr. D. Kennedy Fraser

The headship of the department of education in the University, which has been cared for temporarily since the retirement of Professor De Garmo in 1914, has been filled by the appointment of Dr. Robert Morris Ogden to the professorship of education. Dr. Ogden will come here next fall from the University of Kansas, where he is professor of psychology.

Dr. David Kennedy Fraser, who has been assistant professor of education for the last two years, has resigned. He is a Scotsman, and he has resolved to return home and tender his services to his government.

Dr. William Silliman Foster, at present in the department of psychology, has been appointed assistant professor of education.

Dr. Ogden, the new head of the department, is a graduate of Cornell in the class of 1901. He took his doctor's degree at the University of Würzburg in 1903. He was professor of philosophy and psychology in the University of Tennessee for several years until 1914, when he went to the University of Kansas to be professor of psychology.

STEPHEN LEACOCK HERE

PROFESSOR STEPHEN LEACOCK, of McGill University, was the guest of honor at the annual banquet of Book and Bowl at the Clinton House on April 26. He gave a witty and instructive address on "Education as I see it," in which he poked fun at some modern notions, such as the "teaching" of "literature." Among the guests of members of the club were President Schurman, Mr. Hoy, and Professors Crane, Willcox, Sampson, Prescott, Adams, A. A. Young, Bretz, Stevens, and Hamilton.

THE CIVIL ENGINEER

The Cornell Civil Engineer has elected its staff of officers for next year as follows: Chauncey Millar Briggs '17, Chicago, editor-in-chief; John DeWitt '17, Parshall, Col., managing editor; George Frederick Buckmann '17, New York, circulation manager; Donald Alexander Mackenzie '17, Highland Falls, college and alumni editor.

MR. SCHWAB'S ADDRESS

Mr. Charles M. Schwab, steel manufacturer and member of the University Board of Trustees, gave an address before a large audience of students in Bailey Hall last Friday. A "convocation hour" was set apart for this address, and all University exercises were suspended between 12 and 1 o'clock. Mr. Schwab's topic was "Conditions that make success." He said that those who graduate from a great educational institution should not think themselves on a higher social plane than those who had been educated in the workshop of life. Education was education, no matter how it was obtained. The boy was educated who had learned to do a thing well. He sketched the development of the steel industry in this country and used the narrative to illustrate some of the points he wished to make. He did not believe in profit-sharing, for instance, because it was not a sufficient stimulus to the initiative of the individual workman. He believed rather in offering the workman the opportunity to rise to the most responsible posts in industry. He praised Mr. Carnegie's success in stimulating the ambition of the young men who had risen in the steel business. The sense of accomplishment, he said, afforded a greater stimulus and a greater satisfaction than the making of money.

FOR FIRE PROTECTION

AN APPROPRIATION OF $5,000 was voted by the Trustees last Saturday for a pumping engine to be maintained by the city at the College Avenue station of the Ithaca fire department. The present equipment of that station includes a combination hose and ladder truck and chemical engine, drawn by horses. A motor driven pumping apparatus will now be obtained. The cost of it is estimated at about $8,000. Four of the down-town companies of the Ithaca department have motor apparatus already.

INSPECTION THIS WEEK

THE CADET CORPS has been working hard in preparation for the annual inspection to be held on Friday and Saturday of this week. There is a special prize to be won by distinguished excellence this year. For two years past the corps has won a ranking among the "distinguished institutions" listed by the War Department. If the same honor is obtained the third year in succession the corps will be equipped hereafter with the regulation Springfield army rifle instead of the discarded Krag.

Cornell Battalion for Plattsburg Six Hundred Men May Go to the Senior Camp in August

A Cornell battalion six hundred strong may attend the fourth camp of the senior division at Plattsburg next summer. That will be one of the "business men's" camps and will continue from August 10 to September 6. The privilege of going to Plattsburg then instead of attending the camp for college men, July 5 to August 8, will be accorded to Cornell students if six hundred of them enroll. An appropriation has been voted by the Military Training Camps Association to help along this plan by assisting Cornell students who may be unable to afford the cost of all the equipment they would be required to obtain.

A representative of the Military Camps Association was in Ithaca last week, and the plan to get up a Cornell battalion for the fourth senior camp grew out of a conference between him and Lieutenant C. F. Thompson, the commandant. Lieutenant Thompson explained the plan to the corps at the drill hour on Friday. He said that the Association representative had pointed out the disadvantage of the junior camp, which is to be held from July 5 to August 8, in that this period comes right in the middle of the vacation and that students attending that camp would have to pay for transportation both ways. He had told the representative, he said, that he thought Cornell could furnish nearly six hundred students if they could attend camp after August 15 so that they could return directly to Ithaca. His suggestion had been communicated to the New York office of the Camps Association, and within twenty-four hours a telegram had been received saying that General Leonard Wood, Commander of the Eastern Department, U. S. A., had given his consent to the plan provided an enrollment of six hundred men could be obtained, and provided the men would make up the lost week by marching back to Ithaca. Lieutenant Thompson then explained to the corps the plan which had been adopted.

Students who enroll for the camp will return to Ithaca from their homes on August 15. Although the camp will begin on August 10, permission has been granted for the Cornell battalion to arrive a week late, because the first week of the camp instruction covers the manual of arms and company evolutions, in which Cornell students are proficient. When the campers arrive in Ithaca their baggage will, if they wish, be stored in the armory until their return to college. They will then be fully equipped and organized in a battalion of war strength, namely, four companies of one hundred and fifty men each. They will take a special train for Plattsburg and will arrive there on August 17. They will obtain a reduced rate of transportation.

At Plattsburg the Cornell men will be dispersed in the several organizations of the camp for the remaining three weeks of training. On the termination of the period of training the Cornell battalion will be reorganized and will march back toward Ithaca as a unit. It is planned to keep the battalion on the march up to about September 24. That would give eighteen days for marching. It is estimated that the battalion can easily cover a hundred and eighty miles in that time, for the men will be hard as nails and ten miles a day will be easy. On September 24, wherever they are, the men will entrain and return to Ithaca in time for registration on September 27.

The expenses of the trip, including transportation, mess, and a complete uniform, are estimated at about $40. Students who would like to go but feel that they cannot afford the entire expense are invited to write letters to the Commandant, stating their needs, and for deserving cases drafts will be made upon the appropriation of the Training Camps Association.

If this Plattsburg plan succeeds, it will take the place of the plan which had been formed to hold a camp of the cadet corps near Ithaca next September. The equipment purchased with Willard Straight's gift of $10,000 will serve its purpose much more effectively if used to provide a Cornell battalion for Plattsburg than if employed in the way originally planned. Furthermore, it has been hinted that if Cornell is able to provide a full battalion for the Plattsburg camp this year, arrangements may be made for holding one of the military training camps near Ithaca in future years.

President Schurman spoke of the new plan at the convocation hour on Friday and urged that all students who could do so avail themselves of the opportunity to attend the training camp as members of the Cornell battalion.

The first six hundred applications will be accepted. Two hundred were received immediately after the Commandant's announcement was made, and this week the number was growing.

Cornell Lawyers' Association

A Circular Letter Sent Out as a Reminder of Its Valuable Work

A letter describing the activities of the Cornell Lawyers' Association has been mailed to four hundred and fifty or more Cornell attorneys in New York City and vicinity. It is signed by Leslie H. Groser, the assistant secretary. In this letter especial attention is called to the fact that the association found places for a majority of the Cornell law school graduates of 1915 who are now in New York, and members are reminded that the class of 1916 is about to be graduated. The letter follows:

"The Cornell Lawyers' Association is now in the third year of its existence. Its usefulness to the profession in this city, and, in particular, to the more recent graduates of the Cornell University College of Law, has increased in gratifying measure since its organization. This steady expansion in point of service has been exhibited in the growing frequency with which the Association is resorted to as a means of communication between prospective employers and employees in the legal profession. A majority of the law school graduates of the Class of 1915 who came to New York City have been placed through the instrumentality of this Association, and in addition thereto, several older law school alumni have been enabled to find advantageous positions. This result is, of course, due to the generous consideration which has in the past been accorded the work of the Association by the alumni.

"The attention of Cornell lawyers is therefore confidently directed to the fact that the Class of 1916 is about to be graduated, and many of its members will be desirous of placing themselves in law offices in or near New York City. Your co-operation is earnestly solicited in their behalf. A postcard advising the undersigned of openings in your own or some one else's office will be appreciated.

"In addition to the younger alumni, graduates of several years standing, possessed of a larger measure of experience, are from time to time desirous of making changes. Will you kindly keep this fact in mind when you happen to learn of an opening demanding a law-trained man?

"Again, it has chanced occasionally that the undersigned has been advised of openings in law offices, requiring men of several years experience, where, however, no available candidates for such openings have been known to the undersigned. Those desiring to be advised of such openings as may arise from time to time are urged to communicate with an officer of the Association.

"In order that the expenses incident to carrying on the work of the Association may be met, dues of $2.00 a year are payable. No further obligations are thereby incurred."

Mr. Groser's address is 52 Broadway, New York.

Buffalo's Alumni Fund Work

Campaign in That City Begun—Walter P. Cooke the Chairman

The Alumni Fund campaign in Buffalo got away with a good start on April 26, when Walter P. Cooke '91, as Chairman of the campaign committee, gave a luncheon at the Buffalo Club for the fifteen members of the committee who are to have active charge of the campaign. The Buffalo alumni had postponed the commencement of their campaign until the central office of the Fund should be moved to Ithaca, believing that their efforts would then meet with far greater success.

There are more than five hundred Cornell men in Buffalo and more than a thousand in the territory comprised in the Western New York alumni association.

The Buffalo campaign committee is composed of these men: Walter P. Cooke '91, chairman; John L. Tiernon, jr., '95, vice-chairman; George H. Norton '87, Frank H. Callan '90, Daniel Upton '90, Frederick K. Wing '90, Frederick G. Bagley '91, Thomas A. Sullivan '91, James H. Dyett '92, Otto J. Lautz '93, Daniel W. Barmon '94, Ralph S. Kent '02, J. F. Schoellkopf, jr., '05, Arthur L. Jones '06, James W. Persons '06, and George D. Crofts '01, president of the Cornell Alumni Association of Western New York, ex officio.

Music Festival a Success

Large Audiences in Bailey Hall for the Four Concerts

The eleventh annual music festival, held last Thursday, Friday, and Saturday, was a complete success. The quality of the music offered was high, and the four concerts were well attended. The auditorium in Bailey Hall was sold out for the last concert on Saturday night, when Mme. Schumann-Heink sang.

The Chicago Symphony Orchestra was here for the three days of the festival, playing alone and in concert with both the chorus and the soloists. The chorus of 200 voices was a finished product of Professor Dann's training, and won great favor with the audiences. The chorus appeared perhaps at its best in the oratorio "Elijah," by Felix Mendelssohn-Bartholdy, which took up the whole of the second concert.

The singing of Mme. Schumann-Heink was the feature of the festival. She appeared only in the final concert on Saturday evening. She sang, among other songs, "Andromache's Lament" from "Achilles," "My heart at thy sweet voice," from "Samson and Delilah," "The Cry of Rachel," "Before the Crucifix," "Dawn in the Desert," "Heimweh," and "Danza." She sang several encores in response to the applause of the audience.

Other soloists who took part in the festival were Mme. Anita Rio, Mrs. Grace Bonner Williams, Miss Emma Roberts, Paul Althouse, Arthur Middleton and David Bispham.

THE MASQUE will repeat its performance of "The Amazons" on June 19 during senior week. The production was given successfully last junior week. Frank Lea Short, the non-resident coach, will arrive in Ithaca early next week to begin rehearsals.

Elections to Tau Beta Pi

Honorary Society Adds Twelve Members of the Junior Class to Its Rolls

Twelve juniors were elected last week to Tau Beta Pi, the honorary engineering fraternity. One member of the junior class was elected last fall, giving the society a membership of thirteen in the class of 1917, all of whom are registered in the technical colleges. The elected juniors follow:

College of Civil Engineering: George Titus Barton, Montour Falls; Edwin Russell McMillin, Wilkesburg, Pa.; Arthur William Mellen, jr., New York.

College of Architecture: Guy Brown Wiser, South Bend, Ind.

Department of Chemistry: Gordon Ellwood Wightman, Ithaca.

MR. TAFT is giving lectures this week on the Goldwin Smith Foundation. His subject is "The Presidency."

THE measures which have been adopted to provide for the Faculty a greater share in the government of this University may prove to be far reaching in their effects, not only at Cornell, but also at other universities. For several years there has been in this country a reaction from the customary American form of university administration by which a board of trustees generally composed for the most part of business or professional men has had final or sole authority in matters of education. The conception of the university professor as a mere hireling of the trustees, still held in some quarters, has become repugnant to many minds. In several universities devices for giving the institution the benefit of faculty advice and co-operation are on trial. Cornell's experiment will be one of a number. They will all be watched by educators, and new and perhaps better methods in university administration may grow from them. The Cornell Faculty has therefore a large responsibility in the choosing of its delegates to the Board of Trustees. The success of the experiment will depend not only upon the character of the men selected but also upon the spirit in which the selection is made, and upon the Faculty's notion of the part which its delegates are to play. It would seem wise for the Faculty to give them freedom of judgment and action, to regard them as university councillors rather than as faculty advocates.

THE SITE chosen for the proposed new laboratory of chemistry has manifest advantages over the Morse Hall site. It is centrally situated with reference to other departments whose students are required to take work in chemistry, and it offers room for expansion. The latter consideration is not the less important of the two. There is promise of enormous development in the application of chemistry to industry in this country. There is reason to believe that the demand both for investigators and for men trained in industrial methods will increase. Cornell will be fortunate if it has large facilities for the teaching of chemistry.

STUDENTS WHO ENROLL for the Cornell battalion which is to go to Plattsburg next August will serve both the Nation and the University, and the experience will do them good. To share in such a camp as that of Plattsburg will be better for the cadet corps than to have a camp all by itself. The cadets will learn more, and we believe they will come back with a greater respect for their own corps than they will take with them.

REUNION NOTICES

REUNION CLASSES

Following is a list of the classes which will hold reunions this year and the names and addresses of the secretaries:

1871: R. G. H. Speed, 911 East State Street, Ithaca.

1876: D. F. Flannery, 1200 Westminster Building, Chicago.

1881: H. H. Wing, 3 Reservoir Avenue, Ithaca.

1886: Dr. Luzerne Coville, 514 East Buffalo Street, Ithaca.

1891: Willard Austen, University Library, Ithaca.

1896: G. S. Tompkins, Box 343, Albany, N. Y.

1901: Arthur H. Sherwood, 52 Vanderbilt Avenue, New York. Reunion Chairman: J. P. Harris, 714 Cuyahoga Building, Cleveland.

1906: Reunion Chairmen: Roger S.

Vail, 110 South Dearborn Street, Chicago; Miss M. L. Stecker, Mount Holyoke College, South Hadley, Mass.

The classes named above will have their reunions on Friday and Saturday, June 16 and 17. The following classes will meet in Ithaca on Friday and Saturday, May 26 and 27:

1911: James O. Winslow, The Herald, New York.

1913: George H. Rockwell, 136 Broadway, Cambridge, Mass.

1915: R. W. White, 102 Waverly Place, New York.

1901

Every man, woman, and child who claims 1901 as his own is wanted for the Fifteen Year Reunion in June. With less than half the class canvassed we are already assured of an attendance of 75. You can't afford to stay away. If you haven't done so already, please advise the chairman at once that you are coming. Sign up early and get measured for your new suit. The expense is going to be kept down to a level where every one can enjoy the fun without a feeling of burden. In fact, no one is going to be allowed to spend a cent after he reaches Ithaca. The program will be financed in advance.

Note the big events! And more will be announced later!

1. Baseball, 1901 vs. 1906.

2. Crew, 1901 vs. 1906.

3. Big show Saturday evening, when 1901 will entertain all the visiting alumni and members of the University.

4. Joint dinner with women of the class, to which wives of members of the class are invited, Saturday evening.

5. Men's reunion dinner, Friday evening.

6. Uniform: regulation khaki.

7. All 1901 men together in the new dormitory. You can't afford to miss the two big days at Ithaca, June 16 and 17. An official 1901 automobile will meet all trains and will be at the disposal of members of the class during the entire reunion.

J. P. HARRIS, Chairman,
714 Cuyahoga Building,
Cleveland, Ohio.

1913 REUNION

Final instructions, in the form of a "preparedness" letter, were sent out to the 1913 men, two weeks ago, and a follow-up card this week. As a result replies are coming in from all over the country, indicating a great number coming back for the Three Year Reunion. The card enclosed in the first letter should be filled out and returned immediately to George H. Rockwell, 136 Broadway, Cambridge, Mass. The New York crowd held a very successful Dinner at the Cornell Club on May 2d. From the enthusiasm displayed you would think the whole of New York was to return. "Back to the Biggest Little City" is the slogan.

CLASS OF 1901

The following members of the Class of 1901 are lost, strayed, or stolen. Any one reporting the present address of any one of these gentlemen will be rewarded.

Alexander Karst.

Francis Powers Parkinson.

Henry Nimes Rufo.

Harry Allen Sayer.

Sidney Tompkins.

Ernest Henry Waltman.

Send all advices in regard to any of the above to, J. P. Harris, Chairman of the 1901 Reunion Committee, 714 Cuyahoga Building, Cleveland, Ohio.

OBITUARY

W. J. Youngs '72

William Jones Youngs, B.S., '72, died on April 27 at his home in Garden City, L. I. He was born in Brooklyn on June 24, 1851. He grew up in Oyster Bay, where he was a neighbor of Colonel Theodore Roosevelt, whose friend he became when both were young men. From the Huntington High School he came to Cornell in 1868 when the University was opened and he graduated in 1872.

In 1873 he was admitted to the bar and in 1875 he began the independent practice of law at Oyster Bay. He was elected to the Assembly from Queens County in 1878 and 1879. A few years afterward he was elected district attorney and held that office until 1899, when he resigned to accept the appointment of private secretary to Governor Roosevelt. He received the title of "Colonel" by courtesy while serving on the Governor's staff. The Governor afterward appointed him deputy superintendent of banking. In 1903 Colonel Youngs was appointed United States attorney for the eastern district of New York and he held that office for three terms until 1915. Since then he had been editing the Hempstead Inquirer, a weekly newspaper, and had held the office of United States commissioner of the eastern district.

Colonel Youngs is survived by his wife and two daughters. He was a member of the Chi Psi fraternity and the Cornell University Club of New York.

THE ASSOCIATE ALUMNI

Supplementary Report of the Nominating Committee

The chairman of the Nominating Committee of the Associate Alumni makes announcement that Mr. H. W. Peters, who had been nominated for the office of Director of the Associate Alumni, has expressed his inability to accept such nomination, so that Mr. Peters's name has, with reluctance, been withdrawn from the list of nominees as named by the Nominating Committee and as published in a recent issue of the ALUMNI NEWS.

On the other hand, the chairman of the Nominating Committee has received independent nominating papers properly prepared and bearing at least the required number of signatures of qualified electors, placing in nomination Mr. John L. Tiernon, jr., '95, of Buffalo, N. Y. Accordingly, Mr. Tiernon's name is substituted in the place of that of Mr. Peters, resigned, and as no other nominations have been received and as all nominations are now closed by time limitation, the following ticket will go before the annual meeting in June unopposed:

For President:

WILLIAM MITCHELL IRISH '90, Philadelphia.

For Vice-Presidents:

WILLIAM HENRY HARRISON HUTTON, JR., '92, Detroit.

ALICE HENRIETTA BRUERE '95, New York City.

For Secretary:

ROBERT WARREN SAILOR '07, Chicago.

For Treasurer:

NICHOLAS HARTMAN NOYES '06, Indianapolis.

For Directors (in the places of Messrs. Thorp, Edwards, Adler, Warner, and Crawford, whose terms of office expire):

JOHN LUKE TIERNON, JR., '95, Buffalo, N. Y.

WILLIAM REUBEN WEBSTER, JR., '90, Bridgeport, Conn.

NICHOLAS JOHN WELDGEN '05, Rochester.

JOHN PALLISER DODS '08, Chicago.

ROBERT EARL COULSON '09, New York.

For Nominating Committee (in the places of Messrs. Cox, Hoy, and Harris, whose terms of office expire):

CHARLES LEININGER BRADLEY '08, Cleveland.

CHARLES HENRY TUCK '06, Ithaca.

FREDERICK WILLIS '01, New York.

J. P. HARRIS, Chairman.

CORNELL LUNCHEONS

The list below is published here for the guidance not only of members of the associations in the cities mentioned but also of Cornell men from other towns who may be able to attend any of the luncheons. ## Baseball

Cornell 1, Princeton 0

The nine won its home game with Princeton last Saturday by the score of 1 to 0. For Princeton Link pitched a clever and steady game and although Cornell obtained six hits they were widely scattered. But Russell held the visitors to two hits, a successful bunt by Lee in the first inning and a two-bagger by Douglas in the fifth. Russell was never in any serious difficulty.

Captain Mellen was unable to play. A batted ball struck him in the face just as the Cornell team was going out for its warming-up and hurt him so painfully that he had to be assisted to the bench. His place was taken by J. P. Caspar '18, who played third base without error and brought in the only run of the game. Captain Law of Princeton has been out of the game for several weeks on account of illness and did not play against Cornell.

In the first inning Lee of Princeton bunted toward third base and beat Caspar's throw to first. Keating and Hoyt sacrificed him to third, but he was caught off that base by Russell while Driggs was at bat. For Cornell, Clary reached third in the first inning when Hoyt fumbled his grounder, but there were two men out already and O'Connell sent an easy fly to Link.

With one out in the second inning, Budd singled, but Ludwig hit into a double play. Two were out in the fourth when O'Connell and Valentine both singled, and Budd sent a fly to Lee. Douglas's two-bagger in Princeton's fifth inning was made with one out, and Tibbot and Shea were easy outs at first. That was Princeton's last real chance to score.

Cornell scored in the sixth. Sauters was passed. Caspar bunted, Driggs muffed Link's throw at second, and both runners were safe. Sauters was forced out at third when Clary bunted to Link. O'Connell filled the bases with a fast grounder to deep short, which Driggs handled so quickly as to hold Caspar at third base. Caspar scored on Valentine's fly to Hoyt, the centerfielder. Hoyt's return throw to the plate was intercepted by Link in time to catch Clary between second and third, and Clary was run down and put out by Shea.

With two out in the seventh, Eckley hit safely, but Russell was thrown out, Tibbot to Link. In Princeton's ninth inning Russell struck out Lee and Keating, and Hoyt ended the game with a fly to O'Connell. The score:

J. L. Collyer '17 Elected Captain of the Varsity Eight

John Lyon Collyer '17, of Chelsea-on-Hudson, has been elected by the members of last year's varsity eight to be the captain of the 1916 crew. Last fall, when Cowles Andrus '16 was elected representative of the Navy to the Athletic Council it was decided to postpone the election of a captain henceforward to a period within ten days of the departure for Poughkeepsie. But this spring, at Mr. Courtney's suggestion, a captain was chosen earlier.

Collyer stroked the varsity eight at Poughkeepsie last June. He was the stroke of the 1917 freshman boat, and had had experience at the stroke oar while he was at the Cascadilla School. He is a member of the Chi Phi fraternity.

Better weather last week enabled the crews to make the trip to Crowbar regularly. Mr. Courtney continues to direct affairs around the boathouse and he has been on the lake. No changes have been made in the seating of the combinations since last week.

Cornell's Fast Relay

Four-Mile Team Equals Best Record—Other Successes at Penn Relay Carnival

Cornell's four mile relay team won its race at the Pennsylvania Relay Carnival last Saturday in 17 minutes 51 1-5 seconds. The time equals the world's record. Wisconsin was second and Pennsylvania third. The Cornell milers led all the way and were not pushed. The average time of the four men was 4 minutes 27 4-5 seconds. G. M. Taylor '16 ran the first mile in 4:30 3-5, J. S. Hoffmire '16 ran the second mile in 4:27 3-5, L. V. Windnagle '17 ran the third mile in 4:26 1-5, and D. F. Potter, jr., '16, ran the last mile in 4:26 4-5.

The Cornell men in the individual events made an excellent showing. A. W. Richards '17 tied for first place in the high jump with W. M. Oler, of Yale, at 6 feet 3 inches. Richards also took second place in the shot-put with a mark of 44 feet 10 3-8 inches. Mucks, of Wisconsin, won that event with a distance of 48 feet 1 1-2 inches. Richards was second in the 56 pound weight event.

F. K. Foss '17 tied for first place in the pole vault with Newstetter, of Pennsylvania, at the height of 12 feet 6 inches.

W. S. McCormick '17 won first place in the hammer throw with a mark of 150 feet 2 inches, fourteen feet farther than his nearest competitor, Roberts of Harvard. White, of Syracuse, was third.

The high hurdle event was won by Simpson, of Missouri, the western champion, in the remarkable time of 15 seconds, 1-5 of a second better than the intercollegiate record. The time will not be recorded, however, because Simpson knocked down a hurdle. L. E. Gubb '16, of Cornell, finished second, and F. H. Starr '16 was third, but Starr was disqualified for knocking down more than three hurdles. Watt, the third Cornell entry, did not place in the finals. A. L. Culbertson '17 was entered in the 100-yard dash and in the broad jump but did not place in either.

Harvard won the mile relay championship in the fast time of 3 minutes 19 seconds, and Yale took the two mile relay in 7 minutes 53 seconds, equaling the world's record. Cornell did not enter either of these races.

Tennis

Matches with Penn and the Navy

On a trip taken last Friday and Saturday the tennis team lost to Pennsylvania by the score of 4 matches to 2, and defeated the Naval Academy 5 to 1. The summaries:

Cornell vs. Pennsylvania—Davis (P) defeated Hunter (C), 6-4, 6-4; Blair (C) defeated Edwards (P), 6-4, 7-5; Rowland (P) defeated Thompson (C), 7-5, 8-6; Replogle (P) defeated Callahan (C), 6-3, 6-3; Blair and Thompson (C) defeated Edwards and Rowland (P), 7-5, 6-4; Davis and Replogle (P) defeated Hunter and Guilbert (C), 6-1, 0-6, 6-1.

Cornell vs. Navy—Hunter (C) defeated Randolph (N), 6-3, 6-4; Blair (C) defeated Joy (N), 6-3, 6-1; Thompson (C) defeated Callahan (N), 8-6, 6-1; Haeberle (N) defeated Callahan (C) 5-7, 6-4, 6-4; Hunter and Guilbert (C) defeated Randolph and Haeberle (N), 1-6, 7-5, 6-0; Blair and Thompson (C) defeated Callahan and Slocum (N), 6-4, 6-3.

Spring Day Circus to Be Big

Baseball, Regatta, and Tennis the Other Events of the Day

Spring Day this year falls on May 27. The attractions are the Spring Day circus at 10 a. m., a Pennsylvania-Cornell baseball game at 1:45 p. m., the triangular regatta with Yale and Princeton at 5 p. m., and a tennis match against Dartmouth in the morning.

The policy of the "circus" has undergone a change this year. There will be twice as many shows as ever before, and the shows will really amount to something. In the past few years anything that looked interesting has been allowed to pass muster, no matter what a fizzle it might prove to be inside. The chairman this year will demand rehearsals of each show—something unheard of before—and will insist on a high degree of art.

The circus will be held on Schoellkopf Field for the first time. There are so many shows to be given that the oval will probably be filled with them.

The feature event of the circus will be the great "500 mile race for pushmobiles." Spectators will be allowed to make books on this event. The vehicles will be constructed according to prescribed rules by the freshmen in various fraternities and will be propelled by frosh power—one driving and two pushing. A grand prize of $10 will go to the winner.

The name of the circus has been kept secret as usual, but it has been announced that nearly six hundred undergraduates competed in the contest to suggest the best name.

ATHLETIC EVENTS

NAVY DAY TICKETS

Alumni who wish to procure tickets for the Pennsylvania-Cornell baseball game or the Yale-Princeton-Cornell race of university eight-oared crews, which events will be held at Ithaca on Navy Day, May 27, should file their applications at once with the Cornell University Athletic Association, Box 38, Ithaca, N. Y. Seats at the baseball game will be reserved for alumni until Saturday, May 20, after which day all such seats remaining unsold will be put on general sale. Seats in the observation train which will follow the crews will be reserved for alumni until Friday, May 12, after which all such seats remaining unsold will be put on general sale.

The price of a seat at the Pennsylvania-Cornell baseball game, including admission, is $1.50.

The price of a seat on the observation train is $2.00.

Applicants for tickets are requested to include 14 cents in the remittance to cover postage and registry.

A concert by the Cornell Musical Clubs will be given at the Lyceum Theater on Friday evening, May 26. Seats for this concert will be reserved upon request. The price is $1.00.

POUGHKEEPSIE REGATTA

Alumni who wish to procure seats on the observation train at the Intercollegiate Regatta to be held at Poughkeepsie on Saturday, June 17, are requested to sent their applications for tickets at once to the Cornell University Athletic Association, Box 38, Ithaca, N. Y. The price of seats on the train is $3.00 each. Applicants for tickets are requested to include 14 cents in the remittance to cover postage and registry.

Wrestling.—Floyd Chauncey Sager '17, of Waverly, was re-elected captain of the wrestling team last week. Sager won the intercollegiate championship at 158 pounds this year. He is registered in the Veterinary College and is a member of the Omega Tau Sigma fraternity.

THE CONTEST for the Woodford Prize will take place on May 5.

ALUMNI NOTES

'82, Ph.B.; '84, M.S.—Henry Platt Cushing, professor of geology in Adelbert College, Western Reserve University, was recently elected a member of the American Philosophical Society. The society was founded in 1727 for the purpose of promoting useful knowledge. It has its office in Philadelphia.

JUNIOR

The junior is "Remington" in everything—in name, in manufacture, in quality, in the work it does, in the guarantee that backs it. It is just a boiled down Remington, smaller, lighter and so simple that any one can operate it. No lessons needed.

And it sells for $50—absolutely the first high-grade typewriter at a medium price. You can buy it on easy terms—$5 down and $5 a month.

Here is our offer. We are so sure that the Remington Junior is just the typewriter that you need that we will send it on ten days' free examination to any address within the first and second parcel post zones of any Remington branch office.

When you get it, look it over—make sure for yourself that it is everything we say it is—the typewriter you have always needed.

But the first thing to do is to

HOW CAN WE SERVE YOU BEST

If we could talk personally with each one of you, there is no question but what you would understand the Co-op. better and we would know about what you need. As it is now, we would call your attention to the number of people who send to us for their books, cross section paper and things of this nature. Many business houses send to us for their supplies. It would be profitable for you to do so.
