CORNELL UNIVERSITY

WOMEN'S RESIDENTIAL HALLS

GENERAL SUPERVISION

THE general supervision of the women students of Cornell University, whether they live in the residential halls or elsewhere, is entrusted to the Dean of Women. All undergraduate students except those who live in their own homes or with responsible relatives are required by the University's rules to live, either in the residential halls or other University houses, or, if outside, then in houses which admit only women as lodgers and which the Dean of Women has approved. (A list of the approved houses can be obtained at the office of the Manager of Residential Halls, Cornell University.) Permission to live elsewhere in Ithaca than in any of the several classes of houses just described is granted to an undergraduate student only upon written application to the Dean of Women, and then only in very exceptional circumstances.

Graduate students and special students of mature years can obtain rooms in houses reserved for their exclusive use. (A list of those houses can be obtained at the office of the Manager of Residential Halls.) The Dean of Women may permit a graduate student or a special student to live in a house not under the Dean's direct supervision if the conditions are found to be satisfactory.

The University wishes to assist all students, including those who do not find accommodation in its own halls or houses, to obtain satisfactory rooms. But the University can not assume any responsibility for the selection of a room in any outside house, not even in a house that is on its approved list. Before leasing a room, the student and her parents should consider carefully all the details—the situation of the house, its distance from the campus, the possibility of finding a good boarding place near by, the heating, lighting, ventilation, and furnishing of the room, the fire escape, the roommate if there is to be one, and the price and terms of the lease. A standard form of room contract can be obtained at the office of the Manager of Residential Halls.

THE UNIVERSITY'S HALLS AND HOUSES

The residential halls and University houses which are to be described in this booklet are:

The Residential Halls: Sage College and Prudence Risley Hall.

The University Houses: Five houses situated near Sage College, at No. 1 East Avenue, No. 3 East Avenue, No. 5 East Avenue, No. 7 South Avenue, and No. 15 East Avenue; and four houses situated near Risley Hall, namely, the Risley Cottage and the houses at No. 308 Wait Avenue, No. 324 Wait Avenue, and No. 332 Wait Avenue.

Sage College opened in 1875, is the oldest of the University's residential halls. The Board of Trustees built it and named it in honor of the late Henry W. Sage, who had given a generous sum of money to provide for the higher education of women at Cornell. It is situated on the campus, in attractive surroundings and within easy reach of all the other University buildings. It accommodates one hundred and seventy-five students. An electric elevator runs to the upper floors. The common rooms include a drawing room and six reception rooms, a students' reading room, and dining rooms. The gymnasium and swimming tank for the student women of the University are in this building. The students living in the building are under the immediate charge of the Warden of Sage College.

The house at No. 1 East Avenue accommodates twenty-three students. The residents take their meals in the Sage College dining room and are subject to the rules and regulations that govern the residents of Sage College. The house contains four bathrooms—one on the first floor, two on the second, and one on the third. There are two reception rooms on the first floor.

The house at No. 3 East Avenue accommodates twenty-one students. The residents take their meals in the Sage College dining room and are subject to the rules and regulations that govern the residents of Sage College. There is a bathroom on every floor. The students living in the house have the use of a large reception room on the first floor.

The house at No. 5 East Avenue accommodates eighteen students. The residents take their meals in the Sage College dining room and are subject to the rules and regulations that govern the residents of Sage College. The house contains four bathrooms—one on the first floor, two on the second, and one on the third. There are two reception rooms on the first floor.

The house at No. 7 South Avenue accommodates twenty-eight students. It is situated on the campus about three minutes walk from Sage College. The residents take their meals in the Sage College dining room and are subject to the rules and regulations that govern the residents of Sage College. There is a bathroom on every floor. On the first floor are two reception rooms.

The house at No. 15 East Avenue, directly across the street from Sage College, accommodates twenty-one students. The residents take their meals in the Sage College dining room and are subject to the rules and regulations that govern the residents of Sage College. The house contains four bathrooms—one on the first floor, two on the second, and one on the third. There are two reception rooms on the first floor.

Prudence Risley Hall, the gift of the late Mrs. Russell Sage to the University, was opened in the autumn of 1913. It accommodates one hundred and eighty-four students. It is a fireproof building, beautifully situated on the north bank of Fall Creek Gorge, within easy reach of the main University buildings. Almost every one of the rooms is designed for a single occupant, and the building was so planned that every room in which a student lives receives sunlight at some time in the day. An electric elevator runs to the upper floors. On the first floor are three large drawing rooms, a large recreation room, and dining rooms. The students living in the building are under the immediate charge of the Warden of Prudence Risley Hall.

Risley Cottage, situated within the grounds of Risley Hall, accommodates eleven students. The residents take their meals in the Risley dining room and are subject to the rules and regulations that govern the residents of Risley Hall. There is a bathroom on each floor and a reception room on the first floor.

The house at No. 308 Wait Avenue, within two minutes' walk of Risley Hall, accommodates twenty students. The residents take their meals in the Risley dining room and are subject to the rules and regulations that govern the residents of Risley Hall. There is a bathroom on each floor. Students living in the house have the use of two reception rooms on the first floor.

The house at No. 324 Wait Avenue, across the street from Risley Hall, accommodates eleven students. The residents take their meals in the Risley dining room and are subject to the rules and regulations that govern the residents of Risley Hall. There are two bathrooms on the second floor. There are two reception rooms on the first floor.

The house at No. 332 Wait Avenue, across the street from Risley Hall, accommodates twenty-one students. The residents take their meals in the Risley dining room and are subject to the rules and regulations that govern the residents of Risley Hall. There is a bathroom on every floor. Students living in this house have the use of a large reception room on the first floor.

FURNISHINGS OF THE ROOMS

All the buildings have steam heat and electric lighting. Every room is completely furnished. Four single or two double all-wool blankets are supplied to each student. For sanitary reasons no cotton comfortables are supplied, and students who wish additional covering should supply it themselves. Each student furnishes her own towels and soap and makes her own bed. All other service and supplies are included in the charge for residence. The student is advised to bring with her a comfortable, a hot water bottle, and an inexpensive napkin ring.

CHARGES

A single charge of $515 is made for residence for the academic year. This charge covers the items of room, board, laundry, and service in Sage College or Prudence Risley Hall or any of the University houses. Owing to the unsettled condition of prices for food and labor, the University reserves the right to increase this charge during the year if the Trustees believe such an increase to be necessary. Students living in either Sage College or Risley Hall are required to take their meals in the dining room of that building. Both those dining rooms are conducted by the University.

PAYMENTS

Payment of the charge for residence is made in four equal installments. The first of these is due and payable by September 1. A failure to pay the first quarterly installment by September 1 will be regarded as a surrender of the lease. The second installment is due on November 25 and must be paid not later than December 15. The third installment is due on registration day of the second term and must be paid not later than February 15. The fourth installment is due on April 5 and must be paid not later than April 15.

ADJUSTMENTS

The charge for residence covers the period beginning on the day before the first registration day of the first term and ending on the last day of work of the second term, and it does not include the Christmas Recess or the Spring Recess. Students who arrive before the day next preceding the first registration day or who remain during the Christmas Recess or the Spring Recess will be charged extra at the rate of $8.00 a week.

Entering students who must come to Ithaca for examination before registration day will be received at Sage College. They will be charged extra at the rate of $8.00 a week up to the day when the annual charge begins.

No deduction is made for an absence of ten days or less. For an unavoidable absence of more than ten days an equitable adjustment will be made by the Treasurer of the University in consultation with the Dean of Women. Absence from the dining room or failure to send in the full amount of laundry allowed each week does not entitle the student to any deduction. The allowance of laundry is purposely made as generous as possible and it is expected that every student will use the full allowance every week.

LAUNDRY

Every piece sent to the laundry should have the owner's name plainly marked on it with Payson's indelible ink or with an embroidered name tab. Marking with a rubber stamp or with the so-called indelible pad is not effective.

The laundry allowance is fifteen pieces every week, according to the following scale:

1 towel	counted as 1 piece
4 handkerchiefs	1
4 napkins	1
1 pair of stockings	1
1 dress	4
1 shirtwaist	2
1 middy blouse	2
1 petticoat	2
1 plain skirt	2
1 plain princess slip	2
1 nightdress	1
1 union suit	1
2 vests	1
1 corset cover	1
1 drawers	1
1 muslin combination	2

The weekly allowance includes only two shirtwaists, or two plain skirts, or one shirtwaist and one plain skirt or other starched or fancy piece, and the substitution of more pieces of that kind for plain articles is not permitted. An extra charge is made for wash dresses, fancy petticoats, and fancy shirtwaists. Outside laundrymen or washerwomen are not allowed to call at the dormitories.

DAMAGES

Lamps, shades, or crockery broken or missing, and all damage to a room or its fixtures or furniture beyond ordinary wear and tear will be charged to the occupant or occupants of a room. Articles may not be tacked or fastened in any way to the walls, furniture, or electric light fixtures. Pictures and other ornaments may be suspended only from the picture molding. A printed card containing an inventory of the articles in the room is presented to the student at the beginning of the year for verification and signature, and after that the occupant is held responsible for any damage or loss of those articles.

APPLICATION FOR ROOMS

Every application for a room to be reserved, whether made by a student already in residence or by a candidate for admission, must be accompanied by a deposit of $10; the application will not be registered unless the deposit accompanies it. If the lease is executed and the student occupies the room, the deposit is held until the end of the year to insure the completion of the lease and the return of keys and to cover any damage to building or furniture beyond ordinary wear and tear. If the application is withdrawn before September 1 for any good and sufficient reason beyond the student's control, the deposit is returned. After September 1 no deposit will be returned.

ASSIGNMENT OF ROOMS

Rooms are assigned strictly in the order of application. No double room can be held by one person, even though she may be willing to pay the full price. The University reserves all rights in connection with the assignment or reassignment of rooms or the termination of their occupancy.

GOVERNMENT OF THE STUDENT WOMEN

Under the Statutes of the University, the Dean of Women has the general charge of the interests of women students and advises them in regard to all matters, subject to the statutes and rules and regulations of the Board of Trustees and of the general and special faculties. She is recognized as the representative of the University in all matters related to the conduct, the social life, and the self-government organization of the women students.

Wardens, under the direction of the Dean of Women, are in charge of the several halls and houses of residence. Each Warden is the adviser of the students under her care and is responsible for the conduct and the social life of the hall or house which she supervises.

The students are allowed as large a measure of self-direction as possible through their organization, the Self-Government Association of the Women of Cornell University. Every woman who registers as a student in the University becomes ipso facto a member of this association. The Self-Government Association, through its Judiciary Committee, tries any charge of misconduct. If the charge is sustained, the Association either imposes and enforces a penalty or, if the offense is so serious as to call for university action and be made a matter of university record, reports its findings and its recommendation to the general disciplinary committee of the University, the Committee on Student Affairs.

Every student, upon assignment to a room in the residential halls or houses, signs a contract agreeing to abide by the rules established by the University and by the Association. Any student who wilfully and persistently disregards any of these rules renders herself liable to dismissal from the University.

THE HEALTH OF STUDENTS

The University has a Medical Adviser of Women, who is a doctor of medicine. Every entering student receives a physical examination, and every student is recommended to make free use of the privilege of consulting the Medical Adviser, who keeps regular daily office hours for that purpose. The University Infirmary has a normal capacity of seventy-five beds and the number can be doubled in an emergency.

The gymnasium for all the women students of the University is in Sage College. Physical training is required of all students in the first two years. The Medical Adviser prescribes corrective exercises for students whose health requires them. All the gymnasium and athletic work is carried on under the direction of the Department of Physical Training.
